

The Penrith Valley Special Visits Network is a group of Penrith Valley operators who aim to service visitors who are focused on attaining new skills and qualifications while enjoying some of the cultural and entertainment experiences that Australia has to offer.

Penrith Valley has a range of education, cultural and sporting institutions that can tailor courses to the individual needs of inbound study groups.

Content can range from intensive English language training to specialised industry and management instruction to high school subjects and university courses.

Courses can range in duration from one hour to longer-term stays.

Educational services are offered through:

- The University of Western Sydney
- TAFE NSW - Western Sydney Institute
- Applied Scholastics
- St Paul's Grammar School

Tour options can also be arranged as the picturesque Penrith Valley is home to a number of unique tourist attractions. Some of these points of interest include Muru Mittigar Aboriginal Cultural Centre, Sydney International Regatta Centre, UWS Nepean Observatory, Penrith Regional Gallery and Lewers Bequest, and Penrith Whitewater Stadium

A range of accommodation is also available to suit your budget, group size and preference. Penrith Valley has homestay, dormitory and resort style accommodation. Some of the accommodation providers in the area include:

- Oz Homestay
- Log Cabin
- Penrith Valley Inn
- The Vines Holiday Cottages
- Astina Apartments
